

I am extremely concerned over Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This election is critical for the welfare of our country and the world. Voter discretion is essential and deserve to have an accurate balance of information.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest which means protecting the truth of all sides. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
